If you have registered for another Voya account, you will receive a one-time passcode (OTP) sent to your security method on file (email or text message).

Once received, enter the OTP in the Enter Code box and click Verify

If you already have a username file, it will be provided.

Click Continue to return to the log in page, then enter your username and password.

If you forgot or don't know your password, click Forgot Password? to retrieve it and log into your account.

If a username is not found but you do have a cell phone number or email address on file, an OTP will be sent to the security method you select.

After you enter the OTP and click Verify, you will be asked to create a username and password and enter your preferred email address and mobile number for your contact information and paperless election (if selected).

These are the details you will use to access your account online and through the Voya Retire® mobile app.

After you've entered your information, click Continue.

After you click Continue on the previous screen, you will be asked to enter a mobile phone number (or email address) for the future recovery of your username and/or password.

Click Send Verification Code and enter the OTP that was sent to you then click Verify to complete your registration.
